President's Message

Happy Easter! Who would believe that Spring is upon us although we did not have much of a winter not to mention the lack of much needed rain.

Thank you all for having taken the time to vote in our 2015 Board of Directors and we look forward to serving you. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the past board members for all their dedicated time and hard work. Special thanks also to Fundação Oriente for sponsoring our Lusitano Bulletin.

We welcomed in the Year of the Ram with our Chinese New Year party in February which was enjoyed by many members and their friends. This year is supposed to be filled with good fortune and luck especially for those that like to dabble in lotteries.

We had a casino trip a few weeks ago to celebrate Portuguese Immigrant Week which was very enjoyable for the bus load of us going to Cache Creek. A few have already asked if we will be having another one soon. Participation in events like this shows the strength of the club which has gained many new members.

Our next event will be the Clam Bake which will be on April 18. I don't need to describe this gathering especially to those that have participated in the past except to say it is an unforgettable experience.

There is supposed to be a Macau Youth Encontro this summer but as of now we are still waiting for confirmation from Macau. We will send out the details once we have more information.

As there are too many events coming up to mention; checking the calendar of events would be your best bet. I look forward to meeting all of you there.

Sincerely yours, Dorothy Oliveira

Recipe

BACALHAU COM NATAS

by Maria Joao da Cruz

Ingredients:

- 4 4"x4" squares of bacalhau
- 9 medium size russet potatoes
- 2 medium size onions thinly cut
- 4-5 cloves of garlic minced
- 1 tablespoon paprika
- 1 medium size carton whipping cream

Method:

Soak bacalhau overnight to remove most of the salt. Boil with peeled potatoes until soft. Shred bacalhau. Mash potatoes and mix together. Fry onions, garlic and paprika in olive oil until onions are soft. Add to mashed potatoes. Mix in whipping cream. Pour into 9"x13" tray. Top with bread crumbs and bake until top is golden brown.

Annual General Meeting & Elections of Directors/Officers

We are pleased to announce at our recent AGM & Elections of Directors & Officers on Feb. 7th, your 2015-2016 Board was elected as follows for a 1-year term. Thank you for all those that mailed in their proxies or attended the meeting to meet our required minimum 20% quorum to vote in the new Board.

2015 - 2016 LUSITANO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

President: Dorothy Oliveira

Vice-President: Nuno Prata da Cruz

Secretary: Annie DeGraca Puska

Treasurer: Chris daRoza

Directors: Vic Boisseree, Jessica Xavier, and Leonardo Xavier

Left to Right: Leonardo Xavier, Jessica Xavier, Dorothy Oliveira, Chris daRoza, Nuno Prata da Cruz, Vic Boisseree

Special thanks to Maria Roliz, Maria Joao da Cruz, Kirk Harper, and Ricardo Collaco who have served 5 consecutive terms and thus need to take a mandatory break. Their dedication and time these past years on the Board are greatly appreciated. Our deepest condolences also go to our Club Secretary Annie Puska and the DeGraca family for the loss of a most wonderful and loving man. Rick DeGraca was a hard working and dedicated Lusitano Director despite his fight with pancreatic cancer throughout his 4-years term on the Board. He will be dearly missed.

Lusitano's Chinese New Year Party “Lunar New Year of the Ram”

by Armando “Pinky” da Silva

Lusitano Club celebrated the Lunar New Year of the Ram on Saturday 9 February 2015 with a dinner banquet at the Macau Cultural Center at Fremont.

About 100 plus persons attended. The hall was lavishly decorated with festive motifs primarily in red. California wines and Scotch whiskey fueled the exuberance.

The banquet table served as centerpiece. At Chinese New Year dinner, white rice is paramount followed by roast suckling pig, that of the crispy skin, of Sin Yoke Chu, Leitão in Portuguese, Lechon in Spanish as Filipinos describe it. Lo Han Jai is the third of the important trio on the table.

In Asian culture, symbolism and significance count. Now here are some explanations. Start with Bok Choy which represents growth. Its stalks are joined at the stem, the whole appearing as a growing shrub.

Large prawns came prepared with fresh tomato sauce to stress the color red. Mongolian Beef is beef slices smothered in chopped green onions, a piquant dish. Garlic chicken is a tasteful offering. Fish must be present and that purpose is served by delicate pieces of flounder fillet.

So we have the bounty of land and water; pork, chicken, fungus, mushrooms, small veggies, Bok Choy, and, of course, white rice.

Mixed cocktail fruits in almond jello and Chuen Toi sesame balls rounded the menu.

‘Tis total abundance and total abandonment to describe Lusitano’s Lunar New Year Party.

KUNG HEI FAT CHOI
SAN NEEN FAI LOK

Two Thumbs up! What a Feast! Roast suckling pig, a must have at Chinese New Year and now a symbol of celebration across the globe.

Members & guests enjoying the evening as they welcome in the Year of the Ram with a Chinese dinner banquet and dancing to the music of DJ Colin Dickie.

Lusitano Cache Creek Casino Trip in Celebration of Portuguese Immigrant Week

by Maria Roliz

Members and friends enjoyed themselves on March 7, 2015 as they boarded the Lusitano chartered bus to Cache Creek for a day of fun and luck at the slots and table games. This was definitely a win win trip especially for our first timers who received a $25 casino credit, $20 in table game vouchers, $5 food voucher, and a bus trip to Cache Creek with home made cake prepared by none other than our President Dorothy Oliveira all for $20.

This trip was organized as part of the week long celebration of Portuguese Immigrant week along with a variety of different events hosted by other Portuguese organizations throughout California including the official wreath laying ceremony kick-off on March 7th at the "Portuguese Immigrant Monument" in San Leandro, and a reception at the San Francisco Portugal Consul General's residence March 12th where our Macanese desserts were also served courtesy of Art & Mandy Britto.

It was in 1969 when President Ronald Reagan, California Governor then, proclaimed the second week of March to be “Portuguese Immigrant Week” in honor of the Portuguese immigrants in California. Today, our S.F. Mayor, Ed Lee, continues with the proclamation in San Francisco in full support of our enthusiastic Consul General, Nuno Mathias.

Macau Cultural Center “MCC”

by Maria C. Roliz, President “MCC”

At our Annual General Meeting on January 10, 2015, the following Officers & Directors were elected for a 2-year term from each of the three representatives from Casa de Macau, Lusitano, and UMA.

2015 - 2017 Macau Cultural Center Board of Directors:

President: Maria C. Roliz

Vice-President: Luiz “Ozzie” Ozorio

Secretary: Flavia Greubel

Treasurer: Nuno Prata da Cruz

Directors: Albertino Da Rosa, Ricardo De Senna, Henrique Manhao, Dorothy Oliveira, Sandy Souza

We thank outgoing Vice-President/UMA representative, Maria Gomes, for her time and diligence serving on the Board these past four years to ensure our center run smoothly along with our “MCC” Board and all our dedicated volunteers from our three USA Casas who help keep our center well maintained so we can continue to proudly showcase our Macanese culture and heritage.

2014 has been a great year with a positive cash flow from our hall rentals and four building tenants to fund our 2014 annual expenses, however, we still fall short in making certain needed improvements to our center and build up a fund to eventually pay off our City of Fremont loan which has a current balance of roughly $65,000.

As we prepare to install our next donor plaque for our “2014 Friends of the Macau Cultural Center” in our lobby plaque this summer, please consider making a donation of $100 or more by June 30, 2015 to have your name included also.

This year joint Casa events continue with our Portuguese Language & Culture Classes; Dia de São João Mass & Lunch on June 20 where we will also be celebrating 15 years of Macau as a Special Administrative Region of China with a photo exhibition sponsored by the International Institute of Macau; and Nossa Senhora de Fátima Mass & Lunch on October 11 in Rossmoor.

Sincerely, Maria C. Roliz, President

"MCC" Portuguese Language & Cultural Classes $20

This a great opportunity to learn the language and culture with a subsidized cost of only $20 for all 5 sessions. This and That

“FAMILIAS MACAENSES” - DATA REQUEST FOR 2ND EDITION

by António “Toneco” M. Jorge da Silva

The 3 volumes of “Famílias Macaenses” are available for your perusal by appointment at the Macau Cultural Center, 109 J St, Fremont or 582 Market St, San Francisco so you can check your family data for update/correction. Don’t miss out in getting your family data included in this important set of genealogical books.

Submittal deadline: December 31, 2015

Dr. Jorge Forjaz, author of the 3 volumes “Famílias Macaenses” published in 1996, is working on updating this important genealogical documentation of Macaense families. The intention is to have this new revised 2nd edition published in time for the 2016 Macau Encontro in late 2016.

Your help is needed to make his work as complete as possibly by sending in your updated data, and where necessary, correcting the data in the current 1996 volumes by Dec. 31, 2015. Please email him on jorge_forjaz_genea@hotmail.com with the following information:

Family Data

- Full names of all individuals. Initials are not acceptable but nicknames can be included if in quotation marks.
- Names of parents
- Names of spouses (and maiden names of wives) and names of spouses' parents
- Names of children and grandchildren
- Dates and places of birth, marriage and death (shown as day/month/year) for all names listed
- A few words on occupation and education (including the name of University)

Photographs (scanned at a minimum of 300 dpi)

In addition, Dr. Forjaz is also interested in photographs of families taken before the diaspora of the 1950s and 1960s for his selection to include in the publication, i.e.

- Formal family photographs such as weddings, formal family groups taken before the diaspora. Please be sure not to send group photos with family and friends.
- Photographs of individuals such as family patriarchs and matriarchs are also of particular interest.
- The formal and full names of those in the photographs to be included and not just initials and nicknames.

Dr. Forjaz reserves the right to select the photographs to compliment his text as not all of the photographs sent can be published.

Deadline for Submittal: December 31, 2015

Any information submitted after that date will not be guaranteed to be included in the new publication.

Many of the community have seen the first edition of Famílias Macaenses the genealogical data of which has been translated into English by Henrique “Quito” d’Assumpção on his website (www.macaneseamilies.com). While the first edition and translated information is of vital importance to the genealogical documentation of the Macaense people, it originally lacked the support and information necessary to make it more complete and inclusive of many families in the community, particularly those from Shanghai. This second edition is therefore very important and the last opportunity for community to assist in the completion of this monumental collection of the genealogy of their families.

I fully support and will assist Dr. Forjaz in any way I can. I will make available to him the family photographs published in my books and work with him on family photographs I did not have. If there are any objections from those in the community who sent me their family photographs, please let me know as soon as possible. I encourage the community to make every effort to send him the detailed information he requires to finalize this monumental task that will be fundamental to present and future generations.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

PORTUGUESE SOFTBALL ALL-STAR LEGENDS, HONG KONG 1946 - 1963

By Filomeno Baptista

Robert Remedios at Bat

As a follow up to my article “Portuguese Softball Teams in Hong Kong 1930-60s” published in the 2014 Lusitano Summer Bulletin, I submit my choice for Hong Kong Softball Association’s All-Time All-Star Portuguese (Male) Players. There were many superb Portuguese female players but I am concerned only with “der guys” in this article.

Most of the information is based on my late friend Al Madeira’s Hong Kong Tiger Standard articles, and the rest is based on my experience and bias.

The players are listed according to their batting order followed by their position and team.

Lead off: Artur Ozorio - 2nd base, Saints

Second: Junior Remedios - Shortstop, Braves

Third: Robert Remedios - 1st base, Cheyennes

Clean up: Gerry Gosano - Center field, Recreio

Fifth: Tony Rodrigues - Right field, Delawares/Warriors

Seventh: Dick Chaves - 3rd base, Cheyennes

Eighth: Frankie Correia - Catcher, Jaguars

Ninth: Vic Pedruco - Pitcher, Jaguars/Braves

Reserves: Danny Gosano (Triple Crown Winner), Sonny Machado (Strike Out Record), Ricky Oliveira (Ball Lightning)

Manager: Olly Vas – Jaguars. Because of his many contributions to the game and the deep respect he commanded from players and fans alike.

The selection of Gerry Gosano, Junior Remedios and Vic Pedruco should be obvious but explanation is required for the others to answer the inevitable “Why this guy?”.

Robert Remedios: Because he was a superb hitter who won the triple batting crown. He also contributed greatly to the game as a manager and always displayed good sportsmanship.

Tony Rodrigues: A power hitter and a team player who won the batting title in 1958 with a .455 average. He was also a Matar Morro boy and a friend.

Artur Ozorio: He was fast on the bases, a reliable batter and superb fielder. He was also a Matar Morro neighbor. A point of interest, his brother Lolly Ozorio was the famous champion bridge player.

Dick Chaves: A superb all-rounder. He can play any positions except pitch.

Gus Pereira: A superb sportsman. He was a good enough soccer player to have been recruited by a professional Australian soccer team but very sensibly chose to immigrate to the United States instead. He is also my token Shanghai boy, but most importantly he married my sister and made her very happy.

These stars played during what I call the "Golden Years" of Hong Kong Softball, from 1946 to 1963. They are the cream of the many Portuguese athletes and when they left, mostly for the United States, Hong Kong softball lost, in my opinion, its glamour and excitement.

CLUBE LUSITANO BANKNOTES

Does anyone know the story or origin of these 2 banknotes stamped with Clube Lusitano and its emblem? They were recently acquired by a collector and stirred up our curiosity. The Chinese 10 cent note was first issued in 1940 so our guess is this would have been used in the 1940s possibly at Clube Lusitano in Shanghai, but why the use of overprinted banknotes such as these giving the value as 1 dollar. Please email us at lusitanousa@gmail.com if you have the answer.

WANTED: BOOKS ON SHANGHAI

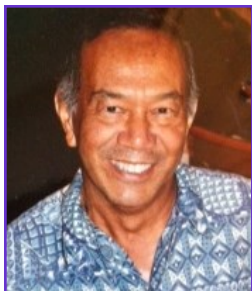

The "Xaverians" (Ex-Marist students) are hoping to start a library with books about Shanghai; mainly during the school years in Shanghai before and after the Japanese occupation (1927-1948), and possibly those who have lived a few years under the Communist takeover in 1949. Any books on Shanghai, or just personal memoirs compiled or authored by ex-Shanghaianders. Please send to: Oscar Collaco, 2642 45th Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94116.

A TRIBUTE TO A FALLEN DIRECTOR

HENRIQUE “RICK” DEGRACA

DEC. 18, 1948 - FEB. 2, 2015

By Maria Roliz

On February 2, 2015 our Lusitano Club lost a great director and friend, Henrique “Rick” DeGraca, after an incredible 6+ year journey with pancreatic cancer.

Being involved with the Lusitano Club over the past 20 years, I get to know and meet a lot of our filhomacs of all ages. Rick was exceptional. He was such a loving, caring, inspirational, and kind person, and would make you feel so comfortable talking to him. He was also a hardworking and dedicated Lusitano Director despite his fight with pancreatic cancer throughout his 4-years term on the Board. He never let his illness stop him from doing everything that was important to him as long as he had the strength to; his faith carried him on. He loved his family, tennis, and was proud of his Macanese heritage. I once gave him a Lusitano pin when I first met him 10+ years ago and I could see how he treasured that pin and wore it proudly on his suit lapel whenever the opportunity came.

It was my esteem honor and privilege to have known Rick and served with him on the Board and be his friend. Our deepest condolences to his wife Lulu, his children, Toni, Annie (our Club Secretary), Rick, and the DeGraca family for the loss of a most amazing and loving man. He will be dearly missed and always be in our hearts. Rest in Peace, my friend “The Miracle Man”!

Rick was the beloved husband of Teresa (Lulu), loving father to Antonia Chu, Anamaria Puska, and Ricardo and best Papa to Amanda Chu, Alison Chu, Alexa Chu, Haley Puska, and Madison Puska. He was the youngest of 5 siblings: Sylvia Ferras, Joe, Robert, and Armando DeGraca. The family sends their sincere thanks for all the expressions of sympathy they received.

WEDDING BELLS FOR DORINDA BANKEN & JACK LUCEY

by Maria Roliz

On November 1, 2014, Dorinda Banken and Jack Lucey tied the knot at St. Angeles Church, Brea, California with their children and grand-children as their bridal party.

The romance started just a little over a year ago over coffee in Starbucks in their famous Birch Street in Brea “aka” Dream Town. Ten months later, the proposal came with the next six months of non-stop wedding planning, a big church wedding and reception was in place. Family and friends came from afar to celebrate with the lovely bride and groom. It was a indeed a dream come true for the two lovebirds that met in Dream Town and now enjoying their lives together.

LYCE & RICK ROZARIO - 50 GOLDEN YEARS

by Maria Roliz

On January 2, 2015, Lyce & Rick Rozario, celebrated their 50 golden years of marriage with the love of their life, daughter Antonia, and close to 300 guests at Continental Seafood Restaurant in Richmond B.C., Canada. What a divine celebration! The room was just exquisitely decorated and filled with gold and red balloons, and overflowing with all the love and appreciation from the greatest of family and friends that were present. The various entertainment throughout the evening was just superb with an elaborate 12 course Chinese Banquet dinner followed by an assortment of desserts including a traditional Macanese wedding fruit cake in a personalized white doily and gold ribbon for each guest. What an honor to have shared this momentous occasion with such a beautiful couple. Parabens!
