President's Message

Dear Lusitano Members and Friends,

Welcome to another year of celebrating our Proud Macanese Culture and Heritage. I am honored to represent our Macanese Community as President of the Lusitano Club of California. We have had an amazing year in 2024 where we had over 350 members join us in our ancestral home of Macau for the Encontro das Comunidades Macaenses. Being back in Macau has always been a bitter sweet memory for me. It has rekindled many members' pride in being a Maquista from Macau. I would personally like to thank our outgoing President Maria Roliz for her tremendous efforts in spearheading the enormous logistical efforts in the organization of this past year's 2024 Encontro trip. Your ongoing effort to preserve our unique Macanese traditions and culture is irreplaceable. A Huge Muito Obrigado to You Maria Roliz!! Viva!!!

This past October, we celebrated our 40th Anniversary of the Lusitano Club of California at Dominic's in San Francisco. It was an honor to have had the new Portuguese Consul General of San Francisco, Filipe Ramalheira, join us in our celebration dinner dance and several Club events so far in 2025. A Big Welcome to you and your lovely family to California!

I would like to thank all the outgoing directors who helped serve on the Board and all the new directors and officers on this year's Board. I look forward in maintaining our traditions with everyone's help and dedication to assist in keeping our club vibrant and relevant. Thank you also to Fundação Oriente Portugal for sponsoring our quarterly bulletins so we can keep everyone informed.

We have our upcoming annual Clambake scheduled for Saturday April 26th from 12-4pm at the Macau Cultural Center in Fremont (see flyer page 4) amongst the many planned events for 2025. Please come out and join us!

Yours truly,
Leonardo Xavier, President

Celebrating the Year of the Snake at Lusitano Chinese Year Party

by Vic Boisseree

Well, its officially 2025, according to the Gregorian New Year. While many turn to Western astrology, Chinese astrology offers a rich cultural perspective with its own wisdom and guidance, and the Chinese New Year is here. In 2025 the Chinese New Year began on January 29, ushering in the Year of the Wood Snake. The Snake, the 6th animal in the Chinese zodiac, symbolizes traits like intuition and strategy. With the influence of the Wood element, 2025 emphasizes growth and planning.

We are entering into a year of death and rebirth. A year to make responsible decisions to evolve spiritually, moving away from old ways and habits that no longer serve us well. Among all living creatures, the Snake is the best equipped due to its magnetic resonance to hear the heartbeat of Mother Earth. It is a dynamic year to learn from the past, moving forward with wisdom, awareness, transformation and compassion.

Mythology recognizes the Snake as a creature of healing, which influences the physical body to shift to a more spiritual outlook. A great deal of quiet progress can be made in 2025 with the help of this planetary energy. Honor this transformative beginning every day with positive thoughts.

The Snake also represents wisdom, knowledge, intelligence, intuition and creativity. Snakes are associated with good luck, prosperity, fertility and longevity. In some legends, snakes are considered divine messengers and guardians of sacred places. Snakes are also revered for their ability to shed their skin and renew themselves, symbolizing transformation and rebirth.

While the Year of the Snake will be less noisy than last year's Dragon year, it will be no less deadly. The Snake is a double-edged creature, embodying both wisdom and danger. While it offers opportunities for growth and insight, it will require careful navigation to avoid its hidden perils. It's also worth noting snakes have been important to ecosystems and a myriad of cultures over the centuries. Some snakes have been worshiped as gods in India, with offering of milk occasionally poured in snake pits. They can also be seen as a symbol of virility and fertility and are even prayed to during a Hindu festival Naga Panchami. Ancient Greek used snakes to ward off evil and other cultures around the world have associated snakes with wisdom and healing.

And if you're lucky enough to find a snake in your yard this year, you've just discovered a harbinger of favorable luck.

The Lusitano Club welcomed the Year of the Snake and its newly elected 2025 Board of Directors on February 2nd at its Chinese New Year Party at the Macau Cultural Center. Congratulations to the Board!

Portuguese Immigrant Week

California houses the largest population of Portuguese Americans across the nation. Since the inception of Portuguese Immigrant Week (2nd week in March) in 1967 by then Governor of California Ronald Reagan, the Portuguese American community has proudly attended a wreath ceremony annually to recognize and celebrate all the courageous Portuguese immigrants at Root Park in San Leandro.

This year the 58th Annual Portuguese Immigrant Week kicked off on March 8th with its annual wreath ceremony followed by a wonderful lunch celebration at the Portuguese Band of San Leandro Hall.

Thank you to the Portuguese Fraternal Society of Portugal (PFSA), Luso-American Financial and the Consulate General of Portugal for hosting this event.

The symbolic statue at Root Park created by Azorean sculptor Numidico Bessone was offered to the City of San Leandro in 1964 by União Portuguesa do Estado da California, now part of PFSA. This statue symbolizes a person carrying a heavy burden, the difficulties and struggles of the emigrant; yet it also shows a man in front of a ship's prow symbolizing the strength, courage and sense of adventure of the Portuguese emigrant.

Viva to our Portuguese Immigrants!

San Jose Sharks Portuguese Heritage Night

As part of the Portuguese Immigrant Week, Lusitano Club organized once again a fun evening to celebrate our Portuguese heritage at the San Jose Sharks Portuguese Heritage Night where everyone received a Portuguese themed puck and a chance to shoot on the ice.

Thank you for celebrating with us.

Força
Portugal!

Portugal Restaurant Week returns April 21-27, 2025!

A variety of Portuguese eateries across California will take part in the celebration. Adega and Petiscos in San Jose, La Salette and Tasca Tasca in Sonoma, Natas Pastries and Barra Santos in Los Angeles. A perfect time to indulge in Portugal's diverse and flavorful cuisine.
